

20 Years of the Cape Walk to End Homelessness

Speak out for housing

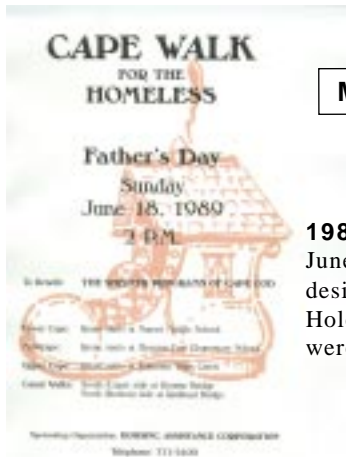

1986
June 22, 1986. First Walk was held in Falmouth, Hyannis, and Orleans. It raised $26,000.

1987
June 21, 1987. Nancy Lancaster of Channel 58 was the honorary chair. There were three walks – Hyannis, Falmouth and Orleans.

1988
June 26, 1988. Bourne Walk along the canal was to Orleans, Hyannis, Falmouth, and Bourne (one on either side). The president of Cape Cod Community College, Dr. Philip Day, Jr., was the honorary chair. Due to thunderstorms, the Bourne walks were cancelled. In all, 26 people walked in Falmouth, 36 people walked in Orleans, and a little over 40 people walked in Hyannis.

Make the dream real

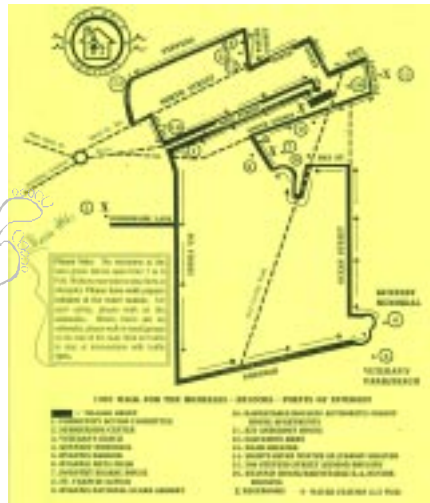

1989
June 19, 1989. T-shirts designed by Woods Hole artist Sig Purwin were given away.

1990
October 14, 1990. Walk moved from June (Father's Day) to October. $63,482 was raised. Joseph DaLuz, president of the Cape Cod branch of the NAACP at the time, was the honorary Walk chair.

1991
October 6, 1991. Lower Cape moved to Chatham. Bob Vila was the honorary Walk chair. Around $43,000 was raised.

1992
October 18, 1992. Dick Kraus, President of Cape Cod Community College, was the honorary Walk chair. $45,000 was raised.

1993
September 26, 1993. The event was rained out, but still $45,360 was raised. Honorary Walk chair was Fred Cusick, the "voice" of the Bruins.

1994
September 25, 1994. Lower Cape Walk moved to the National Seashore in Eastham. Bishop Sean O'Malley, the bishop of Fall River at the time, walked in Hyannis.

1995
September 24, 1995. To celebrate our 10th year, there was a t-shirt design contest (Nancy Devine of Hyannisport won). Started giving t-shirts to walkers.

1996
September 29, 1996. $58,471 was raised. Sheriff Jack Demello was the Walk chair.

1997
September 28, 1997. Gloria Larson was the Walk chair. Raised $56,478. $5000 was donated to Canal House in Orleans.

Make the dream real

1998
September 27, 1998. Bob Vila was our honorary Walk chair. Raised $74,002.

1999
September 26, 1999. Mary Chapin Carpenter was honorary Walk chair. Raised $87,000.

Housing is a family value

2000
September 24, 2000. Trey Anastasio from the music group Phish was the honorary Walk chair. Surpassed the $100,000 mark raising $111,302 (and have gone over $100,000 every year since).

2001
September 23, 2001. The Walk was in tribute to Deacon Wesley Wright. Raised $147,482. This was the first year Trish Conti from Verizon organized a company team. The group raised over $17,000, which was matched by the Verizon Foundation.

Walk with Olympian Paul Wylie!

2002
September 22, 2002. Olympian Paul Wylie was the Walk chair. Goal was $200,000 to cover NOAH cuts. $170,815 was raised.

2003
September 21, 2003. Nick Stavropoulos, President of KeySpan New England, was the honorary Walk chair. A record $183,369 was raised.

Stop the exodus

2004
September 19, 2004. Adopted new logo. Added a Walk in Provincetown. Raised $149,780.

2005
September 25, 2005. Three locations - Hyannis, Falmouth, Orleans. The walk was a march. Slogans such as "Housing is a family value," "Stop the exodus," "Speak out for housing," and "Make the dream real" were adopted. Raised nearly $150,000.

DON'T BE SILENT! Speak out for housing by joining us on September 17!

